

Natumi organic rice drink natural unsweetened 8x1l

Rice drink: Purely plant-based and particularly mild. It is made from the whole grain and is the perfect milk alternative for those following a vegan, lactose-free, or gluten-free diet. It has a slightly sweet note that is a result of the fermentation process during production. Its pleasant mildness and light rice flavour make it ideal for baking or preparing smoothies. The rice is primarily sourced from Italy, with production taking place in Germany. Unopened and unrefrigerated, it has a shelf life of several months (see best before date). Once opened, store in the refrigerator and consume within 4-5 days.
