

Organic blanched almonds in a compostable bag 6x200g

We only use European almonds! They have a distinctly nuttier and more aromatic taste compared to overseas almonds. The blanched almonds are ivory-coloured, with their brown skin carefully removed using steam. They are crisp and firm, providing a good source of fibre and protein. Ideal for snacking, baking, cooking, mixes, toppings, and desserts. You can also find almonds with skin in our compostable bag.
