

Organic Green Pistachio Kernels 1kg

Green, blanched organic pistachio kernels are a visual and culinary delight. The kernels are intensely yellow-green to green and have the slightly sweet and intensely nutty flavour that is so typical of pistazien. Pistachios are a source of protein and rich in fibre. Due to their unique aroma, they are suitable raw or lightly roasted as an ingredient or decoration for fine cakes, tortes, biscuits and desserts. But they are also a wonderful addition to savoury dishes of the oriental cuisine. Fancy a recipe for a very special nut butter? 100 g roasted pistachios puree with a hand blender in 200g white organic almond butter. Season to taste with a pinch of salt and enjoy.
