

Organic whole fenugreek seeds 1kg

Whole seeds of fenugreek. The seeds are light to medium brown and have a lasting, sweetly-bitter, sharp taste. Their full aroma is developed when they are lightly roasted - this also reduces the bitterness. The seeds are slightly reminiscent of lovage and are an important component of many curry mixtures. They are suitable for seasoning curries, vegetable-, pulse-, fish and meat dishes. They are also suitable as a bread spice and give fine cheese creations a nutty flavour.
