

Pitted Deglet Nour Dates Organic 6x250g

Pitted and dried organic Deglet Nour dates, also known as 'Fingers of Light', are medium to light brown and measure between 3 and 5 cm. They have a soft to medium-firm bite, a pleasantly sweet and fruity taste, and are a good source of fibre. This makes dates a natural, delicious snack and a popular ingredient in baking and cooking. They are ideal for adding natural sweetness to fruit bread, cakes, pastry fillings, muesli bars, energy balls, and as a sweet topping on muesli, porridge, or salad. Deglet Nour dates also enhance curries and tomato dishes with their delicate sweetness. Try them yourself. Our dates mainly come from Tunisia and Algeria. Conveniently, dried dates can also be finely ground for easy sweetening of many creations. You can find our organic Medjool dates here.
